

ANTI-FACILITATION OF TAX EVASION POLICY

1. BACKGROUND

The UK government believes that companies should be criminally liable where they fail to prevent those who act for them, or on their behalf, i.e. workers, from criminally facilitating tax evasion. As a result, it has created a new corporate criminal offence of failing to prevent the facilitation of tax evasion. A company could face prosecution under the Act if it fails to have in place reasonable procedures to prevent the facilitation of tax evasion. There are serious criminal penalties for committing an offence under the Act.

Sewtec Automation Limited is committed to the prevention, deterrence, and detection of criminal tax evasion and the criminal facilitation of tax evasion. This document sets out the Company's Policy for preventing the criminal facilitation of tax evasion and the standards and procedures required to ensure compliance with the Policy.

2. POLICY STATEMENT

- 2.1 It is our policy to conduct all of our business in an honest and ethical manner. We take a zero-tolerance approach to facilitation of tax evasion, whether under UK law or under the law of any foreign country.
- 2.2 We are committed to acting professionally, fairly and with integrity in all our business dealings and relationships wherever we operate and implementing and enforcing effective systems to counter tax evasion facilitation.
- 2.3 We will uphold all laws relevant to countering tax evasion in the UK (the jurisdiction in which we operate), including the Criminal Finances Act 2017.

3. ABOUT THIS POLICY

- 3.1 The purpose of this policy is to:
  - a) set out our responsibilities, and of those working for us, in observing and upholding our position on preventing the criminal facilitation of tax evasion; and
  - b) provide information and guidance to those working for us on how to recognise and avoid tax evasion.
- 3.2 As an employer, if we fail to prevent our employees, workers, agents or service providers facilitating tax evasion, we can face criminal sanctions including an unlimited fine, as well as exclusion from tendering for public contracts and damage to our reputation. We therefore take our legal responsibilities seriously.
- 3.3 A thorough risk assessment of all business areas has been performed by the Board of Directors, and controls to mitigate identified risks have been reviewed and strengthened or developed where appropriate.
- 3.4 The list of potential 'red flag' scenarios included in section 13 includes specific identified risks in addition to more general risks.
- 3.5 In this policy, third party means any individual or organisation you come into contact with during the course of your employment for us, and includes actual and potential clients, customers, suppliers, distributors, business contacts, agents, advisers, and government and public bodies, including their advisers, representatives and officials, politicians and political parties.
- 3.6 This policy has been agreed by the Board of Directors and will be communicated to staff throughout the business.
- 3.7 This policy does not form part of any employee's contract of employment and we may amend it at any time.

4. WHO MUST COMPLY WITH THIS POLICY?

This policy applies to all person(s) working for us or any Group Company or on our behalf in any capacity, including employees at all levels, directors, officers, agency workers, seconded workers, volunteers, interns, agents, contractors, external consultants, third-party representatives and business partners, sponsors, or any other person associated with us, wherever located.

5. WHO IS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE POLICY?

- 5.1 The board of directors has overall responsibility for ensuring this policy complies with our legal and ethical obligations, and that all those under our control comply with it.
- 5.2 The Finance Director has primary and day-to-day responsibility for implementing this policy, monitoring its use and effectiveness, dealing with any queries about it, and auditing internal control systems and procedures to ensure they are effective in preventing the facilitation of tax evasion.
- 5.3 Management at all levels are responsible for ensuring those reporting to them understand and comply with this policy and are given adequate and regular training on it.
- 5.4 You are invited to comment on this policy and suggest ways in which it might be improved. Comments, suggestions and queries should be addressed to the Finance Director.

6. WHAT IS TAX EVASION FACILITATION?

- 6.1 For the purposes of this policy:
  - a) Tax evasion means the offence of cheating the public revenue or fraudulently evading UK tax, and is a criminal offence. The offence requires an element of fraud, which means there must be deliberate action, or omission with dishonest intent;
  - b) Foreign tax evasion means evading tax in a foreign country, provided that conduct is an offence in that country and would be a criminal offence if committed in the UK. As with tax evasion, the element of fraud means there must be deliberate action, or omission with dishonest intent; and
  - c) Tax evasion facilitation means being knowingly concerned in, or taking steps with a view to, the fraudulent evasion of tax (whether UK tax or tax in a foreign country) by another person, or aiding, abetting, counselling or procuring the commission of that offence. Tax evasion facilitation is a criminal offence, where it is done deliberately and dishonestly.
- 6.2 Under the Criminal Finances Act 2017, a separate criminal offence is automatically committed by a corporate entity or partnership where the tax evasion is facilitated by a person acting in the capacity of an "associated person" to that body. For the offence to be made out, the associated person must deliberately and dishonestly take action to facilitate the tax evasion by the taxpayer. If the associated person accidentally, ignorantly, or negligently facilitates the tax evasion, then the corporate offence will not have been committed. The company does not have to have deliberately or dishonestly facilitated the tax evasion itself; the fact that the associated person has done so creates the liability for the company.
- 6.3 Tax evasion is not the same as tax avoidance or tax planning. Tax evasion involves deliberate and dishonest conduct. Tax avoidance is not illegal and involves taking steps, within the law, to minimise tax payable (or maximise tax reliefs).
- 6.4 In this policy, all references to tax include national insurance contributions (and their equivalents in any non-UK jurisdiction).

7. WHAT YOU MUST NOT DO

7.1 It is not acceptable for you (or someone on your behalf) to:

- a) engage in any form of facilitating tax evasion or foreign tax evasion;
- b) aid, abet, counsel, or procure the commission of a tax evasion offence or foreign tax evasion offence by another person;
- c) fail to promptly report any request or demand from any third party to facilitate the fraudulent evasion of tax (whether UK tax or tax in a foreign country), or any suspected fraudulent evasion of tax (whether UK tax or tax in a foreign country) by another person, in accordance with this policy;
- d) engage in any other activity that might lead to a breach of this policy; or
- e) threaten or retaliate against another individual who has refused to commit a tax evasion offence or a foreign tax evasion offence or who has raised concerns under this policy.

8. YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

8.1 You must ensure that you read, understand and comply with this policy.

8.2 The prevention, detection and reporting of tax evasion and foreign tax evasion are the responsibility of all those working for us or under our control. You are required to avoid any activity that might lead to, or suggest, a breach of this policy.

8.3 You must notify your manager or the Money Laundering Reporting Officer as soon as possible if you believe or suspect that a conflict with this policy has occurred or may occur in the future. For example, if an employee or supplier asks to be paid into an offshore bank account, without good reason, or a supplier asks to be paid in cash, indicating that this will mean the payment is not subject to VAT. Further “red flags” that may indicate potential tax evasion are set out in section 13.

9. HOW TO RAISE A CONCERN

9.1 You are encouraged to raise concerns about any issue or suspicion of tax evasion or foreign tax evasion at the earliest possible stage.

9.2 If you become aware of any fraudulent evasion of tax (whether UK tax or tax in a foreign country) by another person in the course of your work, or you are asked to assist another person in their fraudulent evasion of tax (whether directly or indirectly), or if you believe or suspect that any fraudulent evasion of tax has occurred or may occur, whether in respect to UK tax or tax in a foreign country, you must notify the Money Laundering Reporting Officer or report it in accordance with our Whistleblowing Policy as soon as possible.

9.3 If you are unsure about whether a particular act constitutes tax evasion or foreign tax evasion, raise it with your manager or the Money Laundering Reporting Officer as soon as possible. You should note that the corporate offence is only committed where you deliberately and dishonestly take action to facilitate the tax evasion or foreign tax evasion. If you do not take any such action, then the offence will not be made out. However, a deliberate failure to report suspected tax evasion or foreign tax evasion, or “turning a blind eye” to suspicious activity could amount to criminal facilitation of tax evasion.

10. PROTECTION

10.1 Individuals who raise concerns or report another's wrongdoing, are sometimes worried about possible repercussions. We aim to encourage openness and will support anyone who raises genuine concerns in good faith under this policy, even if they turn out to be mistaken.

10.2 We are committed to ensuring no one suffers any detrimental treatment as a result of:

- a) refusing to take part in, be concerned in, or facilitate tax evasion or foreign tax evasion by another person;
- b) refusing to aid, abet, counsel, or procure the commission of a tax evasion offence or a foreign tax evasion offence by another person; or
- c) reporting in good faith their suspicion that an actual or potential tax evasion offence or foreign tax evasion offence has taken place, or may take place in the future.

Detrimental treatment includes dismissal, disciplinary action, threats, or other unfavourable treatment connected with raising a concern. If you believe that you have suffered any such treatment, you should inform the Money Laundering Reporting Officer immediately. If the matter is not remedied, and you are an employee, you should raise it formally using our Grievance Procedure, which can be found in J:\Admin\Policies.

11. TRAINING AND COMMUNICATION

- 11.1 Training on this policy forms part of the induction process for all individuals who work for us, and regular training will be provided as necessary. Such training may form part of wider financial crime detection and prevention training.
- 11.2 We will ensure that mandatory training on this policy is provided to those employees, workers and associated persons who have been identified as being at risk of exposure to criminal tax evasion, at least once every year.
- 11.3 Our zero-tolerance approach to tax evasion and foreign tax evasion must be communicated to all suppliers, contractors, and business partners at the outset of our business relationship with them and as appropriate after that.

12. BREACHES OF THIS POLICY

- 12.1 Any employee who breaches this policy will face disciplinary action, which could result in dismissal.
- 12.2 We may terminate our relationship with other individuals and organisations working on our behalf if they breach this policy.

13. POTENTIAL RISK SCENARIOS: “RED FLAGS”

The following is a list of possible red flags that may arise during the course of you working for us and which may raise concerns related to tax evasion or foreign tax evasion. The list is not intended to be exhaustive and is for illustrative purposes only.

If you encounter any of these red flags while working for us, you must report them promptly to your manager or to the Money Laundering Reporting Officer or using the procedure set out in the whistleblowing policy:

- a) You become aware, in the course of your work, that a third party has made or intends to make a false statement relating to tax, has failed to disclose income or gains to, or to register with, HMRC (or the equivalent authority in any relevant non-UK jurisdiction), has delivered or intends to deliver a false document relating to tax, or has set up or intends to set up a structure to try to hide income, gains or assets from a tax authority;
- b) You become aware, in the course of your work, that a third party has deliberately failed to register for VAT (or the equivalent tax in any relevant non-UK jurisdiction) or failed to account for VAT;
- c) A third party requests payment in cash and/or refuses to sign a formal commission or fee agreement, or to provide an invoice or receipt for a payment made;
- d) You become aware, in the course of your work, that an employee asks to be treated as a self-employed contractor, but without any material changes to their working conditions;

- e) A supplier or other subcontractor is paid gross when they should have been paid net, under a scheme such as the Construction Industry Scheme;
- f) A third party requests that payment is made to a country or geographic location different from where the third party resides or conducts business;
- g) A third party to whom we have provided services requests that their invoice is addressed to a different entity, where we did not provide services to such entity directly;
- h) A third party to whom we have provided services asks us to change the description of services rendered on an invoice in a way that seems designed to obscure the nature of the services provided;
- i) You receive an invoice from a third party that appears to be non-standard or customised;
- j) A third party insists on the use of side letters or refuses to put terms agreed in writing or asks for contracts or other documentation to be backdated;
- k) You notice that we have been invoiced for a commission or fee payment that appears too large or too small, given the service stated to have been provided;
- l) A third party requests or requires the use of an agent, intermediary, consultant, distributor or supplier that is not typically used by or known to us;
- m) A third party to whom we have provided services requests a particular contract structure, that may facilitate the evasion of tax;
- n) You become aware that the travel to work patterns of an employee have been manipulated to avoid payroll taxes; or
- o) A third party to whom we have sold goods, requests that the value of the goods (including those that are provided under warranty) is reduced on the invoice.

Monitoring and review

This policy and any related legislation will be monitored by Sewtec to review its effectiveness and will be updated in accordance with necessary changes.
